Freaky Friday Synopsis

Synopsis provided by MTI

The new musical, Freaky Friday, based on the beloved 1972 novel by Mary Rodgers and the hit Disney films (and developed by Disney Theatrical Productions expressly for licensing to theatres), features a book by Bridget Carpenter - the co-executive producer and writer on the beloved TV hits, "Friday Night Lights" and "Parenthood" - and music and lyrics by Tom Kitt and Brian Yorkey - the Pulitzer Prize-winning composers of Next to Normal and If/Then.

When an overworked mother and her teenage daughter magically swap bodies, they have just one day to put things right again. By spending a day in each other's shoes, Katherine and Ellie come to appreciate one another's struggles, learn self-acceptance, and realize the immeasurable love and mutual respect that bond a mother and daughter.

Where have the last 4 years gone? It feels like just yesterday we were watching you in your 1st musical, Beauty & the Beast, where you were the Hat Seller and a Featured Dancer.

Now here we are at your last Yough Middle School Musical, Freaky Friday, where you are Savannah. We are so excited to see how you bring this character to life on stage.

We absolutely "LOVE" watching you on stage. From your dance recitals, to dance competitions, to musicals, you always shine! You constantly make us smile when you're on stage and we couldn't be more proud of you.

We can't believe that it is your last middle school musical. You have been helping out with or in them since you were in third grade. We remember you being so proud that they let you help with the stars and at the spaghetti dinner. Now you have grown up so much and enjoyed being in the musicals for the last four years. First as Sausage Curl Girl in Beauty and the Beast. Next as the Bass that played the Brass in The Little Mermaid JR. Then Cubby in Peter Pan JR. and last Mrs. Blumen in Freaky Friday. We loved watching you in the shows. Enjoy every moment of the show. These are memories that will last forever. Break a leg!
