Seussical Jr Synopsis

Synopsis provided by MTI

Horton the Elephant, the Cat in the Hat and all of your favorite Dr. Seuss characters spring to life onstage in Seussical JR., a fantastical musical extravaganza from Tony-winners, Lynn Ahrens and Stephen Flaherty. Transporting audiences from the Jungle of Nool to the Circus McGurkus, the Cat in the Hat narrates the story of Horton the Elephant, who discovers a speck of dust containing tiny people called the Whos. Horton must protect the Whos from a world of naysayers and dangers, and he must also guard an abandoned egg that's been left in his care by the irresponsible Mayzie La Bird. Although Horton faces ridicule, danger and a trial, the intrepid Gertrude McFuzz never loses faith in him. Ultimately, the powers of friendship, loyalty, family and community are challenged and emerge triumphant!

Platinum Star Winner

Katie Proctor

The golden star is awarded at the end of each rehearsal to students who represent what being a member of the theatre community is all about; kindness, empathy, leadership, dedication, preparedness, eagerness, and teamwork. These students, in one way or another, have lit up the stage using their personalities, not necessarily how fast they picked up a dance move or held out a note.

Special Thanks

The Yough School District Administration for making a middle school theatre program possible.

The YIMS Administration, faculty, and custodial staff.

Each parent who donated their time to make this show a success.

The students, for giving their all.
